Steel Labor Talks Called Off

Union Trying for Aluminum Contract

WASHINGTON (AP)—Steel labor talks have been sidetracked temporarily to let union negotiators try for an aluminum industry agreement. A contract there could influence the steel situation.

The government called off Thursday the steel talks it has been sponsoring. Director Joseph F. Finnegan of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service said the bargaining wasn't making any progress despite stepped-up efforts after President Eisenhower's latest appeal.

No time was fixed for their resumption. Asked whether it would be a matter of days or weeks, Finnegan replied "it won't be a matter of weeks, I'm sure."

Finnegan noted the Steelworkers Union recently concluded a labor peace pact with major car manufacturers, and are negotiating with the top aluminum producers — Alcoa, Reynolds and Kaiser.

The aluminum talks have just resumed in Chicago, ahead of a Jan. 1 strike deadline. David J. McDonald, Steelworkers Union president, had planned to join the aluminum talks even if steel negotiations had continued.

"There is no point holding steel meetings without the key people," Finnegan told newsmen.

"It is to be hoped that when we resume our mediation sessions in the steel dispute, a settlement area will emerge which will make it easier for the parties to reconcile their present differences."

However, the steel talks were called off exactly one week after Eisenhower bargaining for round-the-clock steel bargaining.

Officials obviously were hopeful for an aluminum settlement. McDonald's union represents about 33,000 workers employed by the big three aluminum producers. An agreement in aluminum following the can settlement probably would increase pressure for settlement of the steel dispute.

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — The condition of Civil War veteran Walter Williams was termed critical Thursday by his doctor.

It was the first time the 177-year-old veteran's condition had been called critical.

Youngstown Firm To Get Job

Council OK's Contract For Income Tax Work

If the city income tax of six-tenths of one per cent is passed by Council, the J. Emerson Davis & Co. of Youngstown will handle the installation of the new tax department.

The decision to ink a contract with the Youngstown firm for $10,500 came during a closed committee-of-the-whole meeting of Council Thursday night.

2 Sentenced By Judge; 2 On Probation

LISBON — Two persons were sentenced and two received probation at hearings Thursday before Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp.

Rosalee Barber, 20, of Wellsville RD was sentenced to one year in the county jail for pointing and discharging firearms in the wounding of her mother Aug. 22 when she refused to permit her to use the family car.

Judge Sharp suspended six months of the sentence on good behavior and allowed her credit for the time already spent in jail. She has been confined to county jail and Lima State Hospital since Aug. 22.

Judge Sharp admonished her and told her with her record of two arrests for vagrancy and aiding and abetting rape in Jefferson County, in which she was given 90 days, and warned her that if she got into more trouble he would sentence her as a habitual criminal.

William Edgar Wright, 22, of Wellsville, was sentenced to 1 to 7 years in the Ohio Penitentiary for grand larceny of the theft of copper wire, tools and metal from the Pennsylvania Railroad Sept. 4, 1955.

He had been placed on five years probation on this charge on Feb. 21, 1956 and on Nov. 14, 1957 he raped a 13-year-old girl and was sentenced to an indefinite term on Dec. 9, 1957 to the Mansfield Reformatory by Jefferson County authorities.

Columbiana County probation officer and prosecutor's office placed a retainer on him and when he was released Nov. 18 he was brought back to Columbiana County as a parole violator and sentenced yesterday by Judge Sharp.

Lige Freeman of Wellsville was placed on five years' probation for non-support of his minor children. He was found guilty by a tee-of-the-whole meeting of Council Thursday night.

Unsuccessful bidder for the job of starting the income tax was Brooks & Associates of Salem, Alliance and Youngstown. This firm had offered to do the job for $7,500.

Council's decision and reasoning was shown today in a prepared statement drawn up during the meeting last night.

"Committee of Council will recommend to Council that the services of J. Emerson Davis & Co. be retained to install an income tax system if the income tax ordinance is adopted by Council.

"This decision is based on extensive study by the committee of work performed by the Davis company and by Brooks & Associates in other cities and on the basis of services to be rendered.

"It is the feeling of the committee that the additional services proposed by Davis and his company are worth more than the difference in the cost to the city."

Council members will recommend awarding the contract to Davis because he offered to do additional things, such as acting as consultant after the contract expires and making a house-to-house survey, according to City Solicitor James Primm.

The survey would be taken to determine the number of persons which would be paying the tax and probably the amount of income.

There was little difference in the two income tax ordinances proposed by the firms, Primm added. Miles Brooks, head of the local accounting firm, charged today the Davis firm has never made a house-to-house survey. There has never been such a survey taken in Ohio, according to John Gotham, head of the Ohio Municipal League, Brooks asserted.

He declared that Davis had promised to make such a survey in Alliance, but that the survey had been made from the city directory and the telephone book. Brooks admitted he was "bitter" about losing the contract.

He also doubted whether Council had actually checked the cities where his firm has installed an income tax system.

He questioned whether Davis could charge the city of Marietta the same amount of money as he will receive from Salem ($10,500) and take a door-to-door count of taxable income. Marietta has a population of approximately 35,000 compared with Salem's 14,000.

Davis was unavailable for comment this morning.

Ike Urges War Against Hunger

President Opens American Pavilion

NEW DELHI (AP) — President Eisenhower today called upon all nations to wage together a "genuinely noble war" against hunger and famine, the scourges of India and much of this part of the world.

The President, making three speeches in the course of a busy day, continued to be the center of almost worshipful masses of people.

Worldwide War On Hunger "Men right now possess knowledge and resources for a successful worldwide war against hunger—the sort of war that dignifies and exalts human beings," he declared in opening the dramatic American pavilion at New Delhi's World Agricultural Fair.

In two earlier speeches he: 1. Called for an expansion of the universal recognition of world law as a sound basis of peace.

2. Declared summit conferences of the big powers have less enduring influence for peace than exchanges of students and people-to-people contacts.

A surging, colorful crowd of 10,000 Indians jammed the enclosed field at the fair to hear the President term India a mighty influence for world peace and pledge American help toward solving this nation's critical food shortages.

Crowds Line Route Crowds numbering hundreds of thousands lined the route to the fair grounds, cheering Eisenhower as he passed by with Indian President Rajendra Prasad in an open horse-drawn coach under a red and gold umbrella.

As the ceremonies ended, the sun was sinking and colored lights playing on the stand gave a brilliant glow to Indian dancers in ornate costumes performing before the President.

Eisenhower was praised by Prime Minister Nehru as a great man and a great president.

"You have found yourself in the hearts of my millions," Nehru declared.

Eisenhower said India and the United States are working together to solve India's food problem.

"Whatever strengthens India strengthens us," he said.

Eisenhower cited the "Four-F" theme of the American exhibit at the 14-nation fair — food, family, friendship and freedom.

"Into these four words are committed the hopes of the world."

Gunmen Get $650 In Motel Stick-Up

Democrats Charge 'Politics' Ward Changes Head For Council Action

By LARRY HAWSE

Sparks may fly at Tuesday's regular session of City Council when a bill changing the present boundaries of the city's four wards is put up for a final vote.

The measure, called a "political maneuver" by Third Ward Councilman Harold Astry, Democratic party leader, has been given two readings.

Some of the town's Democrats have been quietly complaining about the Republican-written measure which would give the Republicans a chance to control the now Democratic First ward.

"WE PROBABLY DON'T have enough votes to stop it," the Democratic city chairman said. But Astry declared he would have something to say about the change before the final vote was taken.

"Nobody else was considered," when the plan was drawn up, the veteran councilman charges. "It was drawn up to their (Republican) advantage. I would like to see it reshuffled a different way," Astry said.

Proposed by Republican City Chairman Thomas Coe, the measure is aimed at complying with the state law which requires the city wards to have approximately the same voting population. At the present time, the condition doesn't exist.

FOR EXAMPLE, a look at the number of persons voting in the November election, by wards, shows the Fourth Ward is almost twice as large as the Second and Third Wards combined.

Fourth Wards cast 2,194 ballots at the last election. The number of voters in the other wards were: First — 1,302; Second — 633; and Third — 472.

Coe says the change is being made to put all the wards within 300 votes of each other. Wards usually are within 200 to 250 votes of each other, he said.

Fourth Ward Councilman Ralph Zimmerman has "too many people to represent adequately," the Republican leader explains.

The vote of the Fourth Ward Councilman represents 2,194 voters. By comparison, the First Ward vote on Council represents 1,302

Trio Escapes At Barnett's Early Today

Owner, Employee Tied By Men Who First Asked for Room

Two armed robbers forced the owners and an employee of the Barnett Motel to lie on the floor while they ransacked the house and took $650 in cash and $165 in checks at about 12:30 this morning.

The bandits took the cash drawer with the restaurant's receipts, a metal cash register, a metal savings box and three money bags.

The motel, located on Rt. 62, three miles west of Salem, is operated by Nick and Lena Rini who bought it last fall from Dale Barnett.

The gunmen came to the office in the Rini's home alongside the motel and asked employee Berdena Berger for a double room. As she went behind the office desk, one of the robbers pulled a gun. They then ordered her into a nearby room where the Rinis were watching TV.

Hands Tied Behind Backs

First they ordered all three into a bathroom. Then they called them out one at a time. Rini's hands were friction-taped behind him and he was ordered to lie down. The same procedure was used with Miss Berger, except they used her scarf instead of tape.

Mrs. Rini was ordered to the floor without her hands being tied. They told sheriff's deputies the men drove into the parking lot in a black 1954 or '55 model-Ford. They said the license plate was an L. J. H series. Chief Deputy James Miller said today.

Mrs. Rini called police after the two bandits fled. The two gunmen and the driver of the get away car headed toward Alliance on Rt. 62, she said.

Road blocks were set up around the area by various police departments alerted by the Salem message. Checking outers were police from Alliance, Sebring, Salem, the Mahoning County Sheriff's office, the state patrol and Constable John Herman of Perry Township.

They are looking for two men who fit the following description:

No. 1 — Between 30 and 35 years old, about five feet tall, slender and black hair. He was wearing a finger-length coat and was well dressed.

No. 2 — Short and stocky, about five and a half feet tall, round face, crew cut hair.

The driver of the car was not seen by those at the Motel.

Both men were armed.

Hunters Bag Deer As Season Opens

A number of deer hunters were successful on Columbiana County's fields and hills Thursday as the three-day season opened, according to R. L. Lide, county game protector.

Lide said he had verified reports of at least five deer bagged, but said, "That is no where near the number actually killed." Lide said there were concentrations of hunters at Pancake's Hill area and around Sallenville.

He expects to have a more complete report on the county bag on Saturday when the season ends.

Three parties of hunters from the East Palestine area bagged five does in a concentrated drive north of New Waterford and south of Route 14 yesterday morning.

Another man bagged a buck in Sheepskin Hollow south of Negley.

FIREMEN ANSWER ALARM

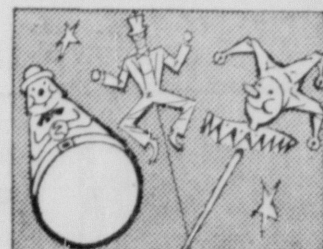

City firemen were called to the National Furniture store at 257 E. State St. Thursday at 11:57 a.m. when a breaker switch on the electrical system caused a short. There was no damage.

11 Shopping Days till Christmas

Record Retail Sales Expected

Avalanche of Yule Buying Under Way

NEW YORK (AP)—People have more money to spend and they're spending it for Christmas.

That's the report today from almost every section of the country as merchants ring up sales which they expect will be the biggest for any Yule season in history.

An Associated Press survey of 24 major cities produced predictions of gains ranging from 2 to 15 per cent over record 1958.

"It's going to be a crackerjack of a Christmas," was the report from San Francisco.

"Department store sales are really rolling," Cleveland reports.

"This will be our biggest year," says Raleigh, N.C., merchants.

"Exceptionally good," report New York's biggest stores.

Merchants say the steel strike has had little effect generally on Christmas buying.

Store owners attribute the avalanche of buying to these factors: People earned more and saved more in 1959; prices are unchanged to only slightly higher than a year ago; credit is easier.

Credit cards spurred buying in Los Angeles. "At least the woman of the house think she has more money," said a department store official.

Shoppers are snapping up high-priced luxury items.

"The big price tag doesn't scare them anymore. They are more concerned with fashion and quality," says a St. Louis merchant.

Miami, Fla., reported a strong demand for furs and $40 sweaters. An Indianapolis store had to reorder $100 suede jackets. In a North Carolina city, $25 electric can openers are going good. Marshall Field & Co. of Chicago expects to sell several $2,000 assemble-it-yourself summer houses styled like a pagoda temple.

High-priced stereo and hi-fi sets are in general demand.

Shoppers are showing a practical side, too. "If you have a good bargain and they realize it, they grab the stuff like hotcakes," says a women's apparel shop owner in Kansas City.

The hot item in toys this year is a 36-inch doll that can be dressed in a 3-year-old girl's clothes. For boys the big attractions are space age toys such as missile sets and scientific laboratory kits.

TO HEAR DAMAGE CLAIMS
CLEVELAND (AP) — Jerome N. Curtis, former assistant U.S. attorney, has been named to hear damage claims resulting from the sinking of the ore carrier Carl D. Bradley.

U. S. Steel Corp., which owned the Bradley, last week agreed to settle the more than 16 million dollars in claims for $1,250,000. The suits were filed by relatives of the 33 crew members who went down with the ship and by the two survivors of the sinking during a storm on Lake Michigan in November, 1958. Curtis will recommend apportioning of the settlement among claimants.

New Ohio River Bridge Discussed

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (AP)—Talk of a new bridge over the Ohio River took the spotlight Thursday night as Ohio and West Virginia legislative and business representatives met here.

The group agreed to gather data needed for presentation of a "case" to federal authorities. Federal aid, if approved, would pay 90 per cent of the cost of the span.

Ohio Highway Director Everett S. Preston informed the group that he plans to bring the new, four-lane U.S. 52 through Chesapeake, Ohio, with a traffic circle-type approach to a present Ohio River bridge to Huntington.

Speaking to the group, which included southern Lawrence County, Ohio, Chambers of Commerce, Preston asked officials to plan a similar approach on the West Virginia side to permit 40 per cent greater traffic volume.

Preston added that there is a need for an expressway down the Ohio Valley from Pittsburgh and said he wouldn't argue which side of the river it should go on.

Plans for a by-pass to connect U.S. 52 and 23 are being studied, the director said. The link would create a direct north-south route from the Huntington area.

A meeting is scheduled for next month to check on the area's progress toward getting federal aid.

WON'T HAVE TO PAY BILL

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Michael V. DiSalle learned Thursday he doesn't have to pay a bill for $200 to a Nelsonville doctor who operated on the broken hip of an 83-year-old welfare patient.

The surgeon had misunderstood the governor's offer last Nov. 7 to pay only for the anesthetic after another doctor balked because of a low fee he said the state previously paid him. It turned out a substitute anesthetist had agreed to donate his services free.

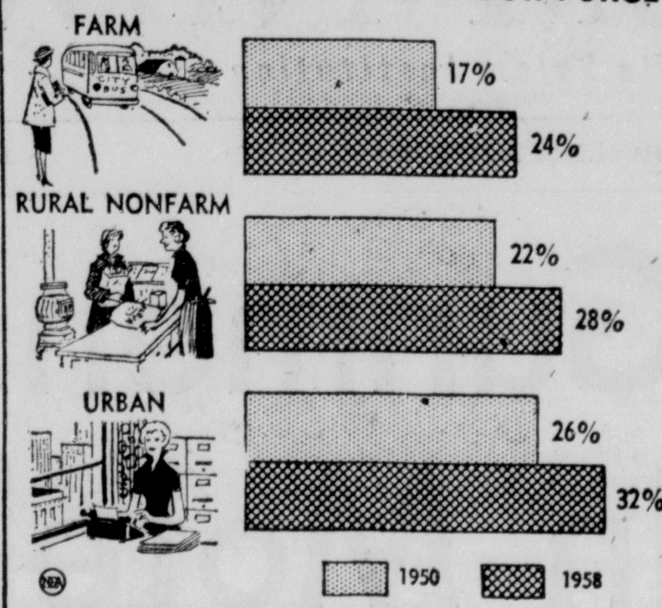

TEAMSTERS WIN ELECTION

JUDGE REJECTS REQUEST
AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Gambling equipment valued at $20,000 cannot be destroyed until Ralph Smith, 43, is tried on a charge of possessing the devices. Common Pleas Judge John M. Kelly Thursday turned down a request by Prosecutor John Ballard that the paraphernalia be destroyed. Smith, of Franklin Twp., is free on $1,000 bond. He is scheduled to appear Dec. 18 in Barberton Municipal Court for a preliminary hearing on the possession charge.

WORKING WIVES IN THE LABOR FORCE

WOMANPOWER — Farm wives are joining the nation's labor force at a faster rate than their small-town or city cousins (see Newschart above). So reports the U.S. Department of Agriculture, noting that the percentage of farm wives earning wages rose by about a third—from 17 to 24 per cent—between 1950 and 1958. For city and rural nonfarm wives, the increase was about one-fourth during the same period.

10 Children In Family Have Tonsils Removed

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—The Sopher family had a tonsillectomy marathon at St. Joseph Hospital Thursday.

Ten brothers and sisters, from 3 to 16 years of age, were rolled into surgery for removal of tonsils. Hospital attendants figure it "must be some sort of record."

Carla Sopher, 3, was first. Three hours later, her brothers and sisters also were without their tonsils.

Mrs. James Sopher, 36, escorted each child to the operating room. Her 37-year-old husband, an appliance serviceman, divided his time between the four rooms reserved by the family.

Two Sophers escaped. Michael, 10, underwent the operation five years ago. Pamela, 3 months, was too young.

FIRE DESTROYS SHOP

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—A fire apparently started by static electricity destroyed the paint shop at Hawthornden State Hospital in northern Summit County Thursday. Damage was estimated at $15,000 by Dr. Howard H. Poppel, superintendent.

None of the 1,800 hospital patients was endangered by the blaze. A painter in the shop, a one-story sheet-metal structure, suffered minor burns.

TO BOOST PRODUCTION

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland-Cliffs Iron Co. plans to boost its annual production of iron ore from the present nine million gross tons to 16 million in the next 10 years. H. Stuart Harrison, executive vice president, made the disclosure Thursday at a meeting of security analysts.

"Chorale from Cantata 140," arranged by W. Finlayson; "Nativity Overture" by Bill Lass; "Christmas in England," by Fred Eager; "A Little Handel Suite," by Philip Gordon and "Rudolph, the Red-Nosed Reindeer" by John Marks.

The band will be making its first appearance with the new music stands which were purchased by the band booster club.

Mr. Shaffer is also the assistant band director at Minerva High School and director of the Chancel Choir of the Carrollton Methodist Church. He conducted the Columbiana County 4-H band the past summer.

Also taking part in the program will be the Boys and Girls Choirs, under the direction of Miss Neva Heestand. They will sing several traditional Christmas Carols. There will be no admission, but a free-will offering will be received.

Just Wait

By FRANCIS STILLEY

NEW YORK (AP) — My good wife would like to say a word or two.

She wants to talk about a little subject which often bothers parents.

Meet Joy. Says she: For those parents who fret and stew because their children refuse to eat, I have just one word of advice. Wait.

It seems like only yesterday we had that problem in our household. Every bite our son got down was the day's big achievement.

Frankly, we consulted pediatricians, neighbors, friends and psychiatrists. Our son's puny appetite was the chief topic at our house.

Now we're having to eat our own words.

As a matter of fact, that is just about all we do get to eat these days. Everything else in the refrigerator, freezer and pantry goes into the bottomless stomach of Brenn, 14.

No longer is it a problem of getting him to eat. It's how to finance his appetite.

From the four bowls of cereal in the morning—while I'm fixing his breakfast—to his final bedtime snack at night he methodically munches his way through the day.

On school days there is a slight letup for a few hours. That, fortunately, gives me time to run to the grocery for fresh loads of eatables. But during the weekends he lives a true hand-to-mouth existence.

Book Learning and Athletics

Recent allegations have had it that School Supt. Paul E. Smith is in favor of a de-emphasis of athletics.

Nothing, it appears, is further from the truth, and Mr. Smith, who in his own school days was always busy in sports, told Boosters Club members at their weekly meeting Wednesday night that he has no intentions of undermining the Salem public schools' athletic program.

It is true that the new superintendent is working hard to improve the academic side of the local school program, but not at the expense of athletics, he has pointed out.

There have been apparent weaknesses in curriculum offerings and procedures and these are being corrected for the benefit of all Salem boys and girls who must receive a proper education.

The Salem High School sports program has functioned well for many years and is likely to continue on that high plane.

The objective, naturally, is a happy balance between sports and academics. If either got out of hand, the tail would be wagging the dog.

In the five months since Supt. Smith came to Salem he has, with the cooperation of the Board of Education, strengthened our educational system. He is to be commended.

H.A.W. for Short, Not for Long

There were years away back there in the aeon of the New Deal when scarcely a newspaper went to press without a story about Henry Agard Wallace — H.A.W. for short.

No man of his day was a more recognizable symbol of the try-anything movement that had washed up on the low fill that keeps Washington from being flooded by the Potomac. Mr. Wallace had a range of imagination that encompassed voters from the boom-erang-throwing minority to corn hybridizers — from dirt farmers to New York City beatniks who then were scurrying from pillar to post under other names. He beat the Russians into outer space.

As secretary of agriculture, as vice president of the United States, as secretary of commerce and finally, in 1948, as candidate for president on the Progressive party ticket, Henry Wallace stood firm in his unorthodoxy. That is what made him a political symbol identifiable at sight.

No one could be sure about the Southerners under the New Deal — whether they stood there to keep dry, or because they belonged to the lodge. But one of them, James F. Byrnes, ended up at the top of the State Department under Harry Truman, and he called the turn on Wallace.

Commenting to Truman on a speech Wallace had made as secretary of commerce, cutting the ground from under Byrnes while he was negotiating peace treaties in Paris, Byrnes snapped:

"If it is not completely clear in your own mind that Mr. Wallace should be asked to refrain from criticizing the foreign policy of the United States while he is a member of your Cabinet, I must ask you to accept my resignation immediately."

Harold Ickes couldn't have said it more nastily.

Truman asked for Wallace's resignation. That was late in 1946. In December 1947, Wallace left the Democratic party. He said he would run for president in 1948 on a third party platform of peace and abundance for all. He did run, polling 1,157,172 votes, making headlines from coast to coast, being himself — and being characteristically unorthodox. He then dropped out of sight.

He is back. He helped to sponsor a Democratic fund-raising dinner honoring Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt. It is by all odds the biggest news since what's his name from Oregon did whatever it was he did that made him politically newsworthy. Let's see now, what was it that what's his name did? He left the Republican party; that was it. Or was it the Democratic party?

Eisenhower Was Right the First Time

Away back there when the grass was green and the first roses of summer were in bloom, President Eisenhower told the steel industry — management and the union representing workers — that it was on its own in its labor relations.

The government, he said, was not going to interfere. It was going to perform its proper function, which was to keep all parties concerned from throwing chairs at each other. But it was not going to do what government had done under previous presidential administrations. It was not going to dictate a settlement. Free collective bargaining was on trial, and it was up to the steel industry to prove free bargaining was what it was cracked up to be.

The grass isn't green now. The roses have withered, and their faded petals have been blown away. The worst that was foreseen as a grim possibility in the steel strike happened. A deadlock brought a Taft-Hartley injunction. The Steel Union is talking about resuming the strike when the injunction runs out in late January. Both sides in the strike are angrier than they were when it was first called on July 1 — angrier than they were when it finally became an official deadlock on July 15.

And now, as 1959 draws to a close, President Eisenhower feels obliged to talk about the steel industry as if there had been a change in the government's position. He has come close to saying the industry's labor relations will be taken over by the government if negotiators do not reach agreement before the Taft-Hartley injunction expires.

This might have the effect of clouding the issue in the showdown vote on industry's offer. It might even have the effect of producing an act of Congress framed in general terms, to make it apply to all labor relations, not just steel's labor relations.

Gifts From the Heart

This is the season when "gifts from the heart" can cheer a number of unfortunate people.

Coins or dollars dropped into the Salvation Army kettles or gifts sent to the Columbiana County Welfare Department for the foster children will let some needy family, an orphan or a forgotten pensioner know there are people still around who care and are thoughtful enough to remember.

As Ralph Waldo Emerson said, "The only gift is a portion of thyself."

Once Over

TV has been guilty of some inexcusably bad practices. Exposures were needed to correct shocking evils, but it can now cry, "Perhaps it was right to dissemble your love, but why must you kick him downstairs?"

It's meant too much to too many people to be stomped on and "beat" up. Its good side entitles it to loud cheers. There was a big shortage of fun in American homes before airwave entertainment came in. And it's easy to forget that not many years ago staying home night after night could be dull for healthy people. It was extra awful for the sick and lonely.

Mom and pop played checkers, read the obits and glared at each other. The kids had to get their fun chalking up the wallpaper, chasing the cat or playing tricks on Aunt Minnie. Grandma, if alone in the old home, couldn't twist a dial and go ski-jumping, motorboat racing or tobogganing in the Alps without moving out of her armchair.

A WIDOW in the solitude of a desolate cabin couldn't take in the opera, enjoy a philharmonic concert or mingle with the stars of Hollywood and Broadway. An invalid couldn't enjoy adventure and far-off expeditions, taking a tour through show business as an encore.

A young woman in a mountain or prairie cottage couldn't have the company of Prince Charming, Lochinvar, Sir Galahad or whatever valiant figures, real or fictional, were they to be ushered in by a wrist motion.

TV and radio have made every hamlet, whistle stop, igloo, tent, shanty, ranch-house, hospital and convalescent home a main entrance to the theatre, circus and the whole world of make-believe, easing the sufferings of millions. Yeah, there have been crooks,

Scrap iron dealers are the ones likely to get a break when an auto driver crashes a red light.

President Eisenhower was right the first time. The steel industry is on its own in this 1959 showdown. Labor relations in the United States are on their own. Government interference is not an alternative; it is a defeat. The striking longshoremen on the Atlantic Coast have settled their dispute and will not have to face the prospect of trouble when their Taft-Hartley injunction expires. Steel can do the same.

RUSSIAN DAIRY FARMERS have challenged American farmers to prove Soviet cows give most milk. In the Soviet Union a cow has to be contented and never dares hold anything back. Every milk pail bears the warning, "Nikita is watching you."

Thomas O'Connor is out with a book of boyhood in the pre-delinquency days when the kids had it extra tough but didn't know it. When five years old he moved with his family to Hell's Kitchen, N.Y., to get $6 a month rent. The region had an overload of bars, filth, rats, bedbugs and smells. It had a mixture of all races in depths of poverty but O'Connor gives a stirring picture of period when it drove few kids to switchblade knives, tire chains, and guns.

His mother was a Tipperary woman, twice widowed and worked all day as a chambermaid and returned home at night to slave for the children. "She prayed every inch the way to and from her job and home," he says.

It's so quiet with disc jockeys in some TV stations these days you can hear a "spin" drop. . . Two Congressional groups are looking into alleged exorbitant cost of pills. Both sides in probe may need wonder drugs to keep them in shape throughout the proceedings. . . A distinguished research group warns that the U.S. will face gravest threat in fight for survival from Russia nuclear power in a few years unless we wake up.

The flabbergasting fact is that if you repeat this to millions of Americans they merely yawn and ask, "What else is new?"

Associated Newspapers

Increasing signs of disinterest by Nikita Khrushchev in the Summit meeting, which a year ago he set as his supreme international aim, has caused confusion among foreign ministries all over the world.

The Soviet Premier's latest utterance on the subject was in a speech last week in Budapest. Explaining why the Summit gathering had been postponed at least until next April, he said:

"Gen. De Gaulle wants to have an exchange of views with me before the conference. His wish is not unfounded."

There is a strong suspicion that the setting of that French-Russian date was prompted not by De Gaulle but by Khrushchev.

The first suggestion that the Soviet Premier had become cool toward meeting with Presidents Eisenhower and De Gaulle and Prime Minister Macmillan came last month when it was announced that Khrushchev would visit Paris on March 15. The French said they expected the visit to last until April 1.

Far from dissenting from that announcement, Khrushchev promptly approved it.

THIS WAS at a time when the British and Americans seemed in

... On Donder, On Blitzen!

Summit Views Confused

By JAY G. HAYDEN

agreement that the Summit meeting should be done with before the end of 1959.

Khrushchev has indicated decreasing hope of any settlement of the Berlin problem satisfactory to himself. At Budapest he put the blame for this on Chancellor Konrad Adenauer of West Germany who, he said, was the only Western leader who denied that an "abnormal position" existed in Berlin.

But at the same time Khrushchev hinted that a Summit meeting should await the conclusion of both the conference pertaining to nuclear testing now going on at Geneva and the 10-nation meeting on general disarmament scheduled to begin early next year.

Suggestions in London that Khrushchev has decided to wait until after the U.S. presidential elections next November were hotly protested by Moscow radio as a Western attempt to saddle Russia with blame or the delays.

The one thing certain is that Khrushchev's enthusiasm for a Summit meeting has lessened. And there is a tendency abroad to attribute that change to his tete-a-tete with President Eisenhower at Camp David.

THE BRITISH believe that a exclusive U.S.-Russian negotiation is the thing Khrushchev, like the late Josef Stalin before him, has been fishing for ever since he assumed power.

Stalin's aim frankly was a division of the whole world into two zones of influence — Russian and American.

There are two important reasons why Khrushchev may prefer to wait.

First, it is apparent to everybody that one result of the Khrushchev-Eisenhower meeting has been a great letdown in Western support of the NATO defense alliance. Every European member of that coalition is taking hope of cutting down its contribution, and so are some leading Americans.

Within NATO there also are glaring conflicts of policy. For example, Gen. De Gaulle's withdrawal of the French Mediterranean fleet from NATO control and his refusal to permit stockpiling of nuclear weapons on French soil unless the French government shared control of them. The latter attitude caused the United States to withdraw from Great Britain 200 of its fastest jet bombers, previously based on airfields in France built at U.S. expense.

ON THE OTHER SIDE of the ledger, however, there are many signs that Khrushchev is having difficulty in selling his satellites on the more peaceful impulses generated at Camp David.

Very definitely Communist China was disgruntled by the Eisenhower-Khrushchev get-together and remains increasingly so. Above all, as American Far East experts believe, Mao Tse-tung is objecting violently to any more big power meetings that do not include his own nation, most populous of all.

Khrushchev no doubt was embarrassed when, just after the meeting at Camp David, Communist China first toughened its suppression of Tibetan nationalism and then turned its fire against India.

On the latter score the Russian chief certainly will be watching with keen interest the outcome of the meeting between President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Nehru.

The Real Issue

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Should Religion Be Used As Political Kickball?

It was in the midst of the war. A Japanese destroyer had split an American PT boat in half. Thirteen American boys were cast into the waters of the Pacific. A young naval officer by the name of John F. Kennedy managed to save the lives of most of them at the risk of his own life. What shall a grateful nation, which decorated the naval officer then, say to him now? Shall it tell him that, because he is a Roman Catholic, he cannot be President of the United States? Must such a prohibition be visited on all Americans who happen to be Roman Catholics?

These questions constitute what is being called the "religious issue" in politics. It arises just now in relation to the so-called birth-control issue, which in itself is not a governmental policy and is not likely to be in this country.

As for other countries which may desire information on it, the United States government, as long as President Eisenhower is in office, will not provide such information. He says it is the province of private organizations to do such work. But the main issue isn't really the birth-control question at all. It is whether a Catholic takes orders from his church to the point where, as President, he would not be free to make or execute policies that the Roman Catholic Church didn't like. Can a Catholic in high office exercise independent judgment?

THE BEST ANSWER to such questions is the one made by the late Alfred E. Smith, Democrat, three times governor of New York state and then being mentioned for the presidency. In an article in "The Atlantic Monthly" in May 1927, in answer to an interrogatory posed by a prominent Protestant writer, Gov. Smith said:

"I summarize my creed as an American Catholic. I believe in the worship of God according to the faith and practice of the Roman Catholic Church. I recognize no power in the institutions of my church to interfere with the operations of the Constitution of the United States or the enforcement of the law of the land."

"I believe in absolute freedom of conscience for all men and in equality of all churches, all sects, all beliefs before the law as a matter of right and not as a matter of favor."

"I believe in the absolute separation of church and state and in the strict enforcement of the provisions of the constitution that Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof."

"I believe that no tribunal of any church has any power to make any decree of any force in the law of the land, other than to establish the status of its own communicants within its own church.

"I BELIEVE in the support of the public school as one of the cornerstones of American liberty."

"I believe in the right of every parent to choose whether his child shall be educated in the public school or in a religious school supported by those of his own faith."

"I believe in the principle of non-interference by this country in the internal affairs of other nations and that we should stand steadfastly against such interference by whomsoever it may be urged. And I believe in the common brotherhood of man under the common fatherhood of God."

"In this spirit I join with fellow Americans of all creeds in a fervent prayer that never again in this land will any public servant be challenged because of the faith in which he has tried to walk humbly with his God."

From the presiding bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church, the Right Rev. Arthur Lichtenberger of Greenwich, Conn., comes this very week a dramatic concurrence.

He said to a news conference in Milwaukee that it is "unfortunate" that presidential candidates are being asked to state their position on the birth-control issue because of its religious implications.

He declared that religious questions should not be a test for a candidate's qualifications. This differs from the view expressed by Episcopal Bishop James A. Pike of San Francisco, who asked "Roman Catholic candidates" to state publicly their position on birth control.

WAS AL SMITH beaten in 1928 by the religious issue? This correspondent vividly remembers that campaign. It was the "wet and dry" controversy that lost votes for the Democratic nominee, who was known as a "wet."

There were many Protestant churchmen identified with the prohibition movement who led the fight against Smith, particularly in the Southern states. But, even so, it was the prosperous condition of the country as a whole which kept the Republicans in power. A Protestant nominee on the Democratic side also would have lost.

The real question to put today to those who know their politics is this: "If Al Smith had been running in 1932 on the Democratic ticket in the midst of the depression of those times, would he have been elected?"

This writer thinks Gov. Smith might not have carried 46 out of the 48 states of the union, as Franklin D. Roosevelt did, but would have carried well over a majority of the electoral college. The religious issue is often a factor, but in a presidential election it could hardly be controlling with 70,000,000 or more voters.

Purely Personal

By TRUMAN TWILL

One way to stir up a fuss these days is to ask drivers who use the Pennsylvania Turnpike if they think the toll road's seven tunnels are safe, when it is possible to be blocked inside them for indefinite periods in the event of accidents and traffic jams. Motorists cannot understand why tunnel traffic is not brought under control instantly when such things occur.

I believe it is impossible for us to understand the problems of Asiatics because we cannot comprehend what happens when millions of people are doomed to live on the verge of famine. Human life becomes cheap. Emphasis shifts from what is desirable to what is possible — and very little is possible.

You have to hand it to baseball's tub-thumpers for filling up the sports pages with trade news between the end of football season and the beginning of basketball season. Baseball's publicists are tops in their trade.

Other kinds of accidents change, but sled accidents are constant. Kids now slide into the path of autos. The first horrible accident I heard of in childhood concerned a bobsled-load of kids ground up under a moving street car.

Most of the soul-searching stimulated by the housecleaning in radio and television is crocodile-tear stuff that won't last long. Or is this, maybe, going to be the Christmas when all tots will be told, "Look, you little fool, there ain't no Santa Claus, ss. We're puttin' all the cards on the table, see. And shut up!"

Despite a hearty attempt to neutralize the birth-control issue before it could get into politics, even President Eisenhower's insistence that it didn't belong in politics came to nothing. The reason is obvious. The issue has been put into politics by circumstances and cannot be taken out arbitrarily by people who would be happier if it weren't there.

It is my observation that people who have "gone over" to economical transportation, meaning one of the compact-compact cars, feel smug about the decision they have made. Unlike people who have stopped smoking, they do not feel the need to be reassured that they have done something praiseworthy.

I have seen all kinds of Christmases come and go — warm, cold, stormy, fair, wet, dry, green and white. Popular songs to the contrary notwithstanding, I never have dreamed of a white Christmas and would feel happy if something could be done to outlaw white Christmases, because snow and holidays don't mix any better than holidays and strong drink.

If I had anything to do with operating school systems, the immediate consequence of losing a popular vote on a school levy would be to lock up all the schools, pay off the teachers to the extent that fund were available, invite them to sue for the balance due on their contracts — and let the dear, distressed voters take it from there.

My first "merry Christmas" greeting came on Dec. 1 this year from a lady sweeping the porch steps of her house. I consider this to be too early and have made it a firm point never to wish anyone a Merry Christmas until Christmas Eve, unless it's one of those perfunctory, "Same to you" things, which always seem to fall flat anyway.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: What has happened to American entertaining? I refer to people who invite you over for a social evening and then put you in the cellar—pardon me—the recreation room.

Why do people have a living room or a dining room if they don't want anyone to go near them? I think it's insulting the way a host or a hostess meets guests at the door and proceeds to hustle them right past the good furniture down to the coal hole.

You get to it on the old makeshift couch or chair with the oil burner and water heater in full view. The floor usually has some discarded, ratty-looking rug or homemade linoleum.

Why do reasonably intelligent people do this, Ann? Don't they realize guests want to be entertained in homes not basements?—SEVEN LEAGUES UNDER.

Dear Seven: Congratulations for having the courage to say what many others have thought privately.

Now and then you'll find a recreation room which is as nice as the upstairs but chances are better than even that the good furniture is on the ground floor.

As to why people herd guests down to the cellar, I think it's more than an effort to save the rugs and upholstery. Usually the recreation room was fixed up by the guy who owns the house and he's so ding-busted proud that he put in a false pasteboard ceiling to cover the water pipes that he wants the whole world to know.

Bachelor Girls

Dear Ann: A neighbor just brought over your article about the behavior of single girls in apartments.

I managed an apartment house for 23 years. When I learned certain girls had late late callers I DID something about it. According to YOU, Ann Landers, you can't change a girl's morals. Well, maybe not, but I did change a few addresses.

When a young man stays in a girl's apartment past midnight I assure you they aren't playing Chinese checkers.

They called me an old biddy and worse but I didn't stand for anything on my premises and everyone in Dubuque knew my building was respectable.—O.R.

Dear O.R.: Did your friend bring the entire article or just part of it?

I made it plain in that column that the owner could ask a tenant to move if she didn't approve of her way of life but she had no right to tell anyone how to live.

Dinner Intruder

Dear Ann: What do you think of a woman who lives within a block of the grocery store and calls her son up every night at dinner time to ask him to go pick up dog food or some other darned fool thing?

This has been going on for three years and I'm ready to blow my top. It seems that just as we are ready to sit down to supper, the phone rings and it's my mother-in-law with a small request. My husband always goes at once. He says it's his duty.

When he gets home the supper is overcooked, the kids are ornery from waiting and I'm mad. What's the solution?—POOR SECOND.

Dear Second: Your husband owes his mother respect but he also has a duty to you and to his children.

Tell him to offer to do all Mom's grocery shopping Saturdays because he cannot do it during the week.

Goggled Grandpa

Dear Ann: You've given me many a good laugh and now I'll give you one.

The letter from that wife who complained about her husband sitting in the window every Saturday afternoon to watch the modeling class across the street reminded me of this sequel:

A middle-aged couple was at the beach. The wife sat on the porch knitting while her husband enjoyed himself at the ocean side.

A "kind friend" reported that her husband was getting his eyes full of the young girls in the scanty bathing suits. She replied, "At his age do you expect him to play with a pail and shovel?"—GRANDMAW

Dear Grandma: Thanks. We're even.

The Doctor Says

By HAROLD THOMAS HYMAN, M. D.

Parents Help Minimize Fever's Ravages

In a previous column, I wrote about the part played by sore throat in the production of rheumatic cardiac invalidism. Today, I'd like to tell you how you can help to save your children from becoming victims of heart disease.

Dr. H. T. Hyman

Whether the first phase of rheumatic fever is a mild or a severe sore throat or an attack of scarlet fever or erysipelas, the infection is a result of tissue invasion by a particularly sneaky and treacherous brand of streptococci.

DURING THIS ACUTE phase of the streptococcal infection, there may not be the slightest evidence of heart involvement.

The second phase of the rheumatic disease, which lasts about 10 days to a few weeks, is equally deceptive. Like the proverbial calm that follows the storm, the soreness of the throat may ease off, the rash may disappear and the temperature return to normal.

to the relief of everyone concerned.

Then, just about the time the youngster returns to school and resumes full activity, the joints begin to kick up, or fever returns, or the mother or the teacher observes that the convalescent tires too easily, doesn't look right or has a bad color. And it is at this time that the skilled physician notes the first evidence of heart involvement.

AND IT IS at this time or earlier, that case finding by YOU or the teacher, or the school nurse, or your school or family doctor may return your child to the paths of health.

Unless the youngster shows signs of having been sensitized to penicillin, a single monthly injection of a long-acting preparation of penicillin will protect against renewed streptococcal invasions. And if the child is penicillin-sensitive, daily mouth doses of other antibiotics will prove equally effective.

HERE'S WHAT Dr. A. L. Chapman told fellow members of the American Public Health Association at its last meeting:

"We know that if children with rheumatic fever take penicillin prophylactically (preventively), there is little chance that they will get rheumatic heart disease."

"Yet, studies show that children by and large are not taking penicillin regularly."

"We have failed signally," Dr. Chapman said further, "to sell the value of preventive medicine to the taxpayer, to the man in the street. He has bought research but he has not bought application. Spending millions for research and pennies for application is like buying bread and not eating it."

Do you think Dr. Chapman might have been referring to YOU?

Fairfield School Plans to be Aired At Public Meeting

FAIRFIELD — A public meeting to discuss plans for the new high school was set up for 7:30 p.m. Dec. 22 at Fairfield High School, when the Fairfield-Waterford Board of Education met on Thursday evening.

Architect Robert Beatty met with the board, members of the teaching staff and school employees to discuss plans for the new school. The board was scheduled to meet today to open bids for $590,000 in bonds for the school construction project.

Mrs. Gerald Coulter of RD 2, Columbiana was hired as a part-time art teacher for the remainder of the year.

Joseph Dirscoll, executive head, reported on a forthcoming adult education program. To date, most interest is shown in Spanish and bookkeeping classes. Persons interested in attending these classes, are to call the Fairfield School. Sessions will begin in January.

Mr. Dirscoll was granted permission to attend the superintendents' convention in Atlantic City Feb. 13-17.

The re-organizational meeting of the Board was set for Jan. 4 at the New Waterford School.

Ward

voters; Second Ward's vote represents 633 voters and the Third Ward's vote represents 472 voters.

THIS IS THE unequal voter representation which Coe was proposing be eliminated. The present Ward boundaries have been in effect for approximately 30 years, he said.

But an interesting change will occur when the precincts are moved about to create the more nearly equal wards. Councilmen representing one ward will suddenly be in another and two Councilmen will end up in the same ward. Some wards also change political standards.

However, as far as the incoming Council is concerned, the change would not effect them until the November, 1961 election.

BUT IF THE 1960-61 Council members run for re-election that year, here's what will happen:

First Ward Councilman Albert Leach and Third Warder Harold Astry will face each other for the Second Ward seat. Both men are Democrats. The Second Ward, now predominantly Republican, will be solidly Democratic. Astry, veteran legislator, would be assured of victory over Leach since he is leader of the city's Democrats.

Second Ward Councilman Donald Cannon, a Republican, will be running for the First Ward seat. If longtime Councilman Rudy Linder, a Republican who was defeated at the past election, decided to enter the race again, he would oppose Cannon.

The first Ward, which has a slight Democratic edge now, would switch over to a Republican majority. Using the contest between the Republican and the Democratic candidates for the Council President's post as a basis of comparing the old and proposed precincts in the First Ward, the Democratic party is moving from an 18-vote edge to a 134-vote deficit.

Fourth Ward Councilman Ralph Zimmerman, Republican, will be moved into the Third Ward which is changed from a Democratic area to a solidly Republican ward. The Republicans would have almost 300 more votes than the Democrats.

A NEW FACE will appear on Council for the Fourth Ward seat. This Republican Ward, now with about a 400-vote majority, would have an advantage of nearly 150 votes on a party vote basis.

The proposed movement of precincts would have no effect on the councilman-at-large seats.

The new wards will be:
FIRST — 1-D; 1-E; 1-C; 2-A and 2-C.
SECOND — 1-A, 1-B, 1-F, 3-A, 3-B, and 3-C.
THIRD — 2-B, 4-B, 4-C, 4-D and 4-G.
FOURTH — 4-A, 4-E, 4-F, 4-H and 4-I.

Prison Escape Leader Nabbed

Six North Carolina Fugitives Still Free

MARTINSVILLE, Va. (AP)—Charles W. (Yank) Stewart, 52, described as the ringleader of Tuesday's escape of 20 men from North Carolina's Ivy Bluff Prison, was captured here early today after a high speed chase that resulted from a police officer's hunch.

The Wilmington, N.C., convict was nabbed when the car he was driving failed to make a curve at the north end of the Smith River bridge and flipped about 30 feet to the edge of the river.

Stewart's arrest left at large only six of the escapees. Two of them believed to have been with Stewart as late as Thursday are being sought in the Lynchburg-Roanoke, Va. area.

Before Stewart was caught, eight others had been taken into custody in Virginia, four in Ohio and one near the prison shortly after the mass break. None offered any resistance.

Yank Stewart was identified positively by State Police Sgt. J. H. Barnes after first giving the name of Woodrow Stewart. One of the escapees still at large is Woodrow Stewart, 38, of Boone, N.C.

He was driving south on U.S. 220 at the northern edge of Martinsville when Martinsville officer Roy Emerson decided to check on the car because it bore city tags from Roanoke, where a car had been reported stolen.

When he ordered the car to stop, Emerson said the vehicle roared away. Emerson pursued the car through Martinsville and was joined by state and Henry County police.

Stewart jumped from the car after it crashed through the bridge and ran. He was captured by State Trooper J. E. Peverall and Henry County officer L. D. Witt. Barnes said Stewart was armed with a .38 caliber revolver.

Hormone-Fed Poultry Sales Are Banned

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government, using a don't-get-excited approach, has announced a ban on sales of poultry fattened with a hormone which can cause cancer.

The hormone is called diethylstilbestrol, or stilbestrol.

Its use in fattening poultry is being discontinued, and birds already grown with its use are being voluntarily taken off the market, it was announced.

But with last month's cranberry scare still echoing, officials gave these added assurances to housewives about stilbestrol-treated poultry:

If you have a chicken in the refrigerator, feed safe to use it if the skin, liver and kidneys are discarded. No residue of the synthetic hormone has been found in the white or dark meat.

Secretary of Welfare Arthur S. Flemming told a news conference Thursday of the voluntary program.

Red Foley Indicted For Tax Evasion

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—Clyde Julian (Red) Foley, 49-year-old radio and TV country music singer, was indicted on two counts of federal income tax evasion Thursday.

The federal indictments charge Foley, star of the Saturday night TV show "Jubilee, U.S.A.," filed false and fraudulent income tax returns for the years 1954 and 1955 and owes $28,498 to the government.

Singing Group Is Freed of Morals Counts

CINCINNATI (AP) — Freed of morals charges here, The Platons, internationally known Negro singing group, are headed for an engagement in Germany.

They said they would open in Berlin Monday.

Although Municipal Judge Gilbert Bettman acquitted the four singers of charges of aiding and abetting prostitution, lewdness or assignation, he lashed at them for having "broken that law which distinguishes man from animal—the moral law."

Acquitted with the men Thursday were four 19-year-old girls—three white and one Negro.

The eight were arrested in a hotel here last Aug. 10. Police said all were either nude or scantily clad.

The night club and recording singer is Ervin Robi, 26, of El Centro, Calif.; Samuel (Tony) Williams, 31, of Hollywood, Calif.; and David Lynch Jr., 30 and Herbert A. Reed, 31, both of Los Angeles. The girls are Jarie Davis, Patsy Sue Howard and Virginia Lee Jones, all of Hamilton, Ohio, and Helen Harrison of Cincinnati.

Judge Bettman based his acquittal decision on a finding there was no evidence the men paid the girls any money and on his opinion as to the definitions and legislative intent in the use of the words "lewdness" and "indiscriminate" in the Ohio law.

He told the singers, however, that "you men, who through your position, had an opportunity to be an example to your people, have instead brought shame upon them."

For these transgressions you will be accountable to the Highest Court before which you must, in the end, stand final judgment," he said.

Election Board Warns Delinquent Candidates

The Columbiana County Election Board at East Liverpool today mailed a "third and final warning" to 25 officials-elect named at the Nov. 3 general election that they will be unable to assume office Jan. 1 unless they file the sworn statements of campaign expenses required by law.

The warnings were mailed to officials-elect in Salem, East Palestine, Wellsville, Columbiana, Leetonia, Lisbon, New Waterford, Rogers, Summitville, St. Clair and Madison Townships and the Beaver Local, Columbiana Exempted Village, Fairfield-Waterford and Franklin Local school districts.

The deadline for the reports is Dec. 18 at 4 p.m. Twenty-five defeated candidates also have not filed reports. If they fail to comply, the law will bar them from seeking public office again for five years.

County Schools Get Surplus Equipment

Columbiana county's four school districts, Beaver, Union, Fairfield-Waterford and Southern, spent $340 at the surplus warehouse in Columbus Thursday and got an estimated $2,500 to $3,000 worth of equipment, according to Supt. James L. McBride.

They bought drills, desks, chairs, a mimeograph machine, lockers and physics and chemistry equipment for high school classes and other miscellaneous articles.

FORFEITS BOND IN LISBON

LISBON — Ernest H. Hilliard, 22, of Cleveland forfeited a $10 bond Thursday in Mayor John Todd's court when he failed to appear on a charge of driving an unsafe vehicle. He was cited by the State Highway Patrol.

OSU Trounces St. Louis 81-74 For Fifth Win In Row

Lucas, Siegfried Tally 52 Points

Georgia Tech Wins Over S. Carolina

By The Associated Press
If Big Jerry Lucas wasn't enough to make Ohio State look tough, Larry Siegfried now has come along to keep the Bucks unbeaten in major college basketball. With the 6-8 Lucas scoring 30 points under the boards and Siegfried, 6-4, popping in 22 points from the outside, Ohio State won its fifth in a row Thursday night, spilling previously unbeaten St. Louis 81-74 on the Billikens' home court.

While Lucas duelled with the Bills' 6-10 Bob Nordmann under the boards, Siegfried, who had been averaging less than 13 points a game, hit six of seven shots as the Bucks built a six-point bulge at the half, 44-33. The Billikens, who had overcome 13 and 4-point deficits while defeating St. John's (NY) and Kansas State in their last two games, three times led by one before Nordmann fouled out midway in the second half.

Lucas, the much publicized soph who has had folks talking since he was an Ohio high school ace, had only a 16-15 scoring edge on Nordmann at the half. Nordmann, who had been averaging 18 points a game, finished with 17, while teammate George Burkel, 6-7, scored 20.

Georgia Tech stretched its two-season winning streak to 12 games with its fifth victory of the campaign, a 70-64 road success over South Carolina. Unbeaten Utah State won its fourth, 71-66 at Iowa State after trailing the previously undefeated Cyclones by one at the half.

Miami of Florida, which had won 10 in a row in a streak carried over from last season, was handed its first loss in five games this season, 84-77 at Centenary. Western Kentucky (3-0) jarred Seton Hall's hopes for a big come back, 78-69.

Grid Commissioner Cites Top Problems

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Joe Foss, commissioner of the new American Football League, says that as a child he wanted to be baseball commissioner.

"Of course my thoughts were of baseball then, but pro football now has gained great popularity and I am proud to be commissioner in it," he said Thursday at his first Dallas press conference. Foss, 44, was a Marine air ace in World War II and served two terms as governor of South Dakota.

The eight-team league starts its first season in 1960 and Foss said one of his biggest problems is "getting coaches and players lined up so we can get our teams on the field."

He expects the signing of players, which has been happening almost daily, to increase after the bowl games are over.

Foss does not expect a fight between his league and the established National Football league or the Canadian League.

"But I think I'll recognize a fight and know what to do," he said. "I think the other leagues will realize we are here to stay."

Rocky Sends Call For Former Trainer

DALLAS (AP) — Rocky Marciano's former trainer said Thursday he would meet the former heavyweight champion in Florida next week to help him work out.

Charlie Goldman, 71, said "I got a call from Rocky just a week ago. He said he had a friend who owns a gym down in Fort Lauderdale and would I come down for a few days. Said he'd like to do a little work. I'm going to meet him in Miami right after this fight."

Goldman came to Dallas Thursday with Garvin Sawyer, a heavyweight who meets Donnie Fleeman in a 10-round bout here Monday night.

"I don't know whether he just wants to feel himself out or what. But it's the first time he's called me about working with him at all," Goldman said.

Velella's Legal Troubles May Make Johansson Free Agent

NEW YORK (AP) — Politician-promoter Vincent J. Velella's legal troubles may make heavy-weight champion Ingemar Johansson a free agent.

At least that was the viewpoint of Johansson's advisor, Swedish promoter Edwin Ahlquist, when he learned Velella had been indicted by a New York county grand jury on a two-count charge of perjury.

Ahlquist today insisted Johansson is as eager as ever to give e-champion Floyd Patterson a return fight.

There are at least two reasons for Ingo's desire to take on Patterson again. The unbeaten Swede dropped Pat seven times and stopped him in the third round at Yankee Stadium last June 26. Ingo thinks Floyd will be just as easy the second time. And secondly, the Swedes believe they can make the most money with Patterson.

Bob Pettit Overshadowed By 'The Stilt'

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Remember Bob Pettit, the St. Louis Hawks' star who broke a National Basketball Assn. record last year with 2,105 points for a single season?

You don't hear as much about the former Louisiana State All-American now as you did a year ago.

St. Louis Coach Ed Macauley said today Pettit is scoring at about the same pace as last year but that 7-1 rookie Wilt Chamberlain of the Philadelphia Warriors is stealing the spotlight because he is new and can't be stopped in the scoring race.

Chamberlain was in good form again Thursday night in spite of an injured left foot. He dumped in 34 points to lead the Warriors to a 131-112 victory over Cincinnati in the second game of a Convention Hall doubleheader.

The Stilt's output boosted his league leading total to 788 points in 22 games—seven more than Cincinnati's Jack Twyman, who led the Royals in scoring Thursday night with 29.

In the opener, Cliff Hagan hit for 31 points and Pettit 24 to hoist the Hawks to a 129-111 triumph over Detroit and increase their lead to 3½ games in the Western division. Archie Dees scored 26 points for the Pistons. Bailey Howell had 22.

At San Francisco, the Minneapolis Lakers hit their offense to Elgin Baylor, who scored 29 points, and dumped Syracuse 96-86. Coach Paul Seymour of Syracuse filed a protest on the ground the third quarter was not given its full 12-minute duration.

Bowling Meet Finals on Today

16 Men Remain On Firing Line

CHICAGO (AP)—Today is pay-off day in the World Invitational Bowling Tournament and it looks like a dog fight is shaping up for the finish of the nine-day $30,000 ten-pin marathon.

As the 16 men finalists start firing their final 16 games of the 64-game head-to-head competition, three of the country's top bowlers were closely bunched at the top.

Leading after 48 games was Bill Bolembiewski, of the A. B. C. champions from Detroit. He held onto the top spot he had taken Wednesday although he lost four of his last eight games.

His lead was slim and his closest competitors were seasoned pros, Ray Bluth and Don Carter, both of St. Louis.

Golembiewski's Petersen point total was 240.31 on the strength of 30½ games won and a total pinfall of 10,506. Bluth A.B.C. master's champion, had 239.33 points with his 30 wins and 10,483 pinfall.

Carter, 1957 world champion and four times all-star titleholder, had 236.27 points. Carter, runner-up in last year's world tourney, vaulted into third place after a poor start both in the qualifying rounds and in the first rounds of match play. He had won 27 of his first 48 games and has knocked out 10,477 pins.

Golembiewski and Bluth split their four-game series Thursday and each split their final two series. Carter wound up his productive day by sweeping four games from George Howard of Detroit with a brilliant 944 series. Carter, who lost 7 of 8 games on opening day of match play, won 11 of 16 Thursday.

The tourney will be nationally televised tonight (9 p.m. CST NBC) replacing the regular Friday night boxing program.

In the women's division, Donna Zimmerman, 26-year-old Akron, Ohio, office worker, moved into the lead after 12 rounds of shooting. She replaced Olga Gloor of Chicago and led with 113.17 points to 112.39 for the Chicago housewife who had been in the lead since Tuesday.

The women end their shooting today with four two-game matches.

Bruins Roll Over Maple Leafs 6-3

By The Associated Press
The injury-riddled Boston Bruins have served notice to the rest of the National Hockey League that they're back on winning ways.

The Bruins trimmed the red-hot Toronto Maple Leafs 6-3 on home ice Thursday night in the only game played. The victory only was Boston's second in 14 games while the Leafs went down to their fourth defeat in their last 16 games.

Boston, still without defenseman Fernie Flaman and winger Johnny Bucyk, scored four times in the opening period. Guy Gendron, Doug Mohns and Bronco Horvath sparked the Bruins.

Gendron and Mohns collected two goals apiece and Horvath picked up three assists. Horvath, the league's scoring leader, has accounted for 38 points on 21 goals and 17 assists.

Don McKenney and Charlie Burns rounded out the Boston scoring. Larry Regan, Bob Pulford and Dick Duff were the Toronto marksmen.

NAIA All-Stars Are Announced

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Four classy backs, who scored touchdowns at a dizzying pace, feature the 1959 all star football team of the National Assn. of Intercollegiate Athletics.

The first team backs announced today are Garney Henley of Huron (S. D.) College, who scored 141 points the past season and has a four-year career total of 394; Gary Campbell, the NAIA's total offense leader from Whittier (Calif.) College who scored 90 points; Lee Farmer, Lenoir Rhyne College, 110 points, and Rusty Addelman, College of Emporia, 123 points.

Lenoir Rhyne, top ranked nationally among NAIA teams, landed two berths on the first team. Besides Farmer the Hickory, N. C. school scored with tackle Charles Sanders. Lenoir Rhyne will play Texas A. and I College in the Holiday Bowl Dec. 19 for the NAIA championship.

The first string ends are William Cole, Whitworth (Wash.), and J. W. Lockett, Central Oklahoma; tackles Sanders and William Beck, Gustavus Adolphus (Min.); guards Gerald Lambert, Texas A. and I; and Arnold Branch, Langston, (Okla.); and center Jerry Fornoff, Western Illinois.

The mythical first team line averaged 210 pounds per man; the backs 194.

The NAIA all star team is chosen by a committee after nominations from coaches of the 32 districts in the organization.

St. Joseph's of Philadelphia Will Meet Cincinnati Tonight

By The Associated Press
Now it's your turn, Bearcats. Tonight Cincinnati, half of Ohio's two-pronged bid for national basketball laurels, can take up where the other half left off Thursday night. All-America Oscar Robertson and his Bearcat playmates match 3-0 records with St. Joseph's of Philadelphia in an effort to elbow back into the limelight that Ohio State (5-0) hogged on its 81-74 conquest of St. Louis.

The Buckeye triumph on a foreign court over a highrated, previously unbeaten foe furnished the proof that OSU's chances of a banner season are for real.

Cincinnati, rated near or at the top of the collegiate cage heap before essaying a dribble in the 1959-60 campaign, can fortify its claims by an impressive victory tonight. Robertson carries a 41.3 points per game average and the Bearcats take a .513 team field goal shooting mark into the St. Joseph's fray.

Ohio State's sharpshooters hit at a .454 field clip in trimming St. Louis and Big Jerry Lucas' 30 points upped his average to 26 per game.

A little guy also is carving himself a piece of the state's individual scoring pie. Bowling Green's 5-11 Jimmy Darrow popped in 32 points Thursday night for a four-game total of 139.

Darrow's efforts were in a lost cause as DePaul trimmed Bowling Green 74-68. A Falcon rally late in the game closed a 14-point gap to 65-62 but the BeeGees couldn't keep it up.

DePaul shot 44.8 per cent from the floor while Bowling Green hit only 35.4 per cent.

In northeastern Ohio, John Carroll successfully fought off a challenger for the President's Athletic Conference basketball title it is defending, downing Western Reserve 86-78. The Blue Streaks snapped a 71-71 tie as John Doyle and Chuck Cybulski led the late drive.

Heidelberg was an Ohio Conference victor, trimming Oberlin 67-60. Duane Warns paced the Student Princes with 25 points. Both squads are 1-1 in conference play.

Former Boxing Champ Found Dead In Hotel

NEW YORK (AP)—Tony Canzoneri, whose flailing fists carried him from a bootblack's box on the sidewalks of New Orleans to boxing's hall of fame, no longer will hold court on his beloved Broadway.

The great little gladiator who won the featherweight, lightweight and junior welterweight was found dead Thursday in a $21-a-week midtown hotel room. Medical authorities said the 51-year-old scrapper apparently had died of natural causes two days ago.

When Canzoneri failed to show for two days at the Broadway restaurant which paid him for the use of his name, a friend, Norman Schwartz, checked the hotel. The ex-champion was found dead lying across a bed, clad in his underwear.

The word quickly spread up and down Broadway.

In front of the restaurant, where Tony held court each night for those who remembered back to the exciting days in the 1920s and early 1930s, many of his friends clustered. They talked in almost hush tones of the man with the big smile who won 140 fights, lost 24 and drew in 11 and then, after his retirement in 1939, joined comedian Joey Adams in a successful night club act.

Purses were not always big in his days, but Canzoneri earned more than $500,000 with his fists. He met all the top fighters of his time—Johnny Dundee, Benny Bass, Kid Chocolate, Bud Taylor, Lou Ambers, Bushy Graham, Joe Sabgor, Sammy Mandell, Al Singer, Jackie (Kid) Berg, Stan Loayza, Billy Petrolia, Wes Ramey, Baby Arizmendi, Barney Ross and Jimmy McLarnin.

Michigan State's football team drew an average of 57,685 fans for five home games this season, the third best home average on record.

Colts Favored Over Rams

60,000 Expected To See Contest

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A favored Baltimore Colt football team arrives in town today, determined to whip the Los Angeles Rams Saturday and escape any possible playoff for the Western Division title of the National Football League.

The defending Colts are picked by as much as 12 points to inflict the 10th defeat of the season on the Rams in the final game for each in the regular NFL season.

The struggle, with some 60,000 expected in Memorial Coliseum, will be televised nationally by the Columbia Broadcasting System, with this area for 150 miles blacked out.

The Colts, with an 8-3 record, can gain clear title if they win. But if they lose—and the San Francisco 49ers win over Green Bay and the Chicago Bears take Detroit—there will be a three-way tie for the division crown.

The Colts take the field with their usual troops.

That means the Rams will have to contend with quarterback Johnny Unitas, halfback Lenny Moore, fullback Alan Ameche and such dangerous pass-catchers as Ray Berry and Jim Mutscheller.

The Rams have absented due to injuries. Their offensive will have Billy Wade at quarterback, with Joe Marconi replacing Ollie Matson as the starting fullback.

Jon Arnett and Jim Phillips go at halfback, with Del Shofner and Leon Clarke on the flanks.

Santa and the ICE KING

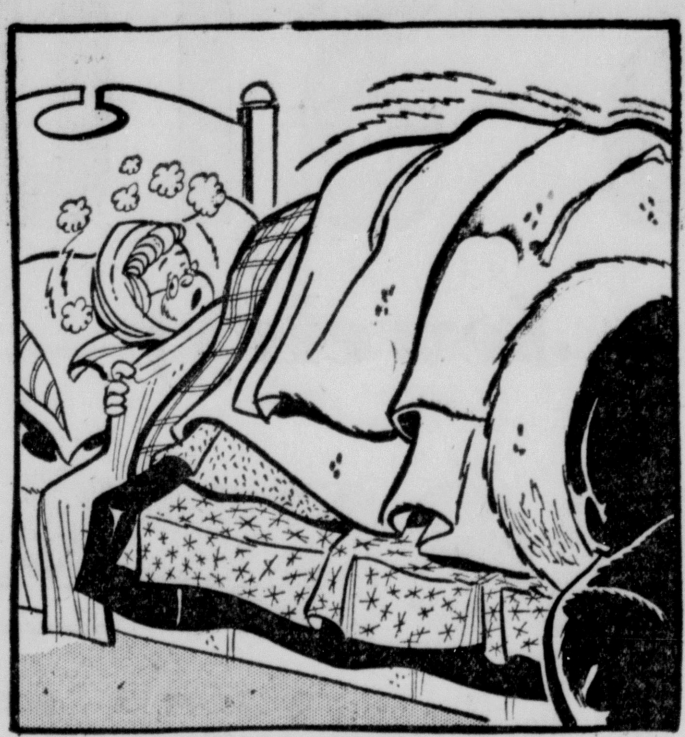

by LUCRECE HUDGINS BEALE

SYNOPSIS: Surviving a fierce storm on the ice sea, Onnik and Keotuk, his faithful dog, have finally reached Santa Land, where they hope to enlist Santa's help in getting the Ice King to end the terrible continuous winter.

(Chapter Five) ONNIK IN SANTA LAND

Onnik hurried over the hill and into the valley where he had seen smoke trailing into the sky. Sure enough the smoke was coming from a little red chimney on top of a little red house. "It's Santa's house! I know it!" exclaimed Onnik joyfully and, with Keotuk at his heels, he rushed up to the porch. Tap, tap! He knocked eagerly at the door. There was no answer. Bang, bang! he pounded. Still no answer. Onnik looked around. Now he saw another house nearly buried under the ice and snow. It was a long low building. Although it had a chimney, there was no smoke coming from it. Further away he saw a large red barn but still no sign of any living creature. Keotuk sniffed at the door of the little red house. He whimpered. Puzzled, Onnik put his hand on the knob and opened the door. "Hello!" he called. "May I come in?"

There was no answer. Holding his breath, Onnik tiptoed in. He found himself in a room with four square walls not at all like the round snow walls he was used to at home.

"Land sakes!" cried Mrs. Santa Claus. "Who are you?"

There was a little fire burning in the fireplace. Two large empty chairs sat before the fire. There was a desk in the corner with papers and letters strewn over its top. "Oh, my!" breathed Onnik, gazing around admiringly. In all his life he had never been in any house except an igloo or tent. He had never seen a fireplace or a chair or a desk! He felt that he had walked into a palace such as he had heard kings lived in in faraway places. He was about to lower himself into one of the chairs when suddenly he heard a groan. He leaped up. The groan came again. It was from over his head! Astonished, he realized there was another room on top of the one he was in. He found some stairs and, trembling, he tiptoed up to the second floor. He found himself in a bedroom and in the bedroom was a bed and in the bed there was someone. At least Onnik thought there was someone in the bed but it was hard to be sure because there were so many covers on it. There were quilts and comforters and blankets and even an enormous polar bear rug on top of whoever was in the bed. "ONNIK CLEARED his throat. "I beg your pardon," he said. The great pile of covers heaved upward and the astonished face of Mrs. Santa Claus appeared. "Land sakes!" she cried. "Who are you?" "I am an Eskimo boy," said Onnik nervously. "I have come from across the sea to ask Santa to save me and my people from the Ice King's anger. You see, it is summer but still summer has not come." "Oh, I know! Don't tell me!" said Mrs. Santa Claus and she threw herself back into the covers with another groan. "We too have been waiting all these months for summer which has not come. And now I have terrible rheumatism which I should only have in winter months. And the snow is so high and the ice so thick we cannot get wood for the fires so the fairies have no fire in the workshops and they are too cold to work. We ourselves are using the dining room chairs for firewood but even those won't last much longer. And the ice is so thick the reindeer have not been able to dig moss to eat and they are starving. "Oh, don't tell me about the Ice King's anger. He's gone plumb off his head, I say, and—" "WHERE IS SANTA CLAUS?" interrupted Onnik uneasily. "In the barn, I expect, nursing the reindeer. Santa says unless something happens soon there's just not going to be any Christmas any more. Onnik slipped from the room. He ran down the stairs and out of the house. "Oh, Keotuk," he exclaimed to his dog waiting at the door. "It's much worse than I knew! Why, even Santa doesn't know what to do!"

Next: A Talk with Santa

Inside Labor By Victor Riesel

Politicians fell like autumn leaves upon the big city these past few days. They swirled in and around the lobby of the Waldorf and mused about the ways of the world as the gay people ignored them and gathered around Eddie Fisher for autographs as an answer to the great question of the season — how is Liz (Taylor, to you) doing in the hospital. Some national Democratic leaders shrugged their shoulders, somewhat in pain, that only the newsmen cared to ask them another question, admittedly of less startling impact: Who would get the Democratic presidential nomination?

There were a few men of the people, however, who did ask the members of the National Advisory Council of the Democratic Party "who it looks like now." One of the shrewdest of the party's leaders replied by describing an off-the-record luncheon in the fourth floor Jansen Suite last Sunday.

SOME FIVE OR SIX tables had been set up. At one—sitting in the best of humor—were Harry Truman, Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, Judge Samuel Rosenman (long the speech writer for FDR and HST), former Gov. Averell Harriman—and Missouri's Sen. Stuart Symington.

At the next table were Minnesota's Gov. Orville Freeman, Michigan's Gov. "Soapy" Williams, Florida's Gov. Leroy Collins, California's Gov. Pat Brown, Paul Siffrin of California—and Sen. Hubert Humphrey.

And around another white cloth were three lesser knowns, Bill Blair of Chicago, former Air Force Secretary Tom Finletter — and Adlai Stevenson.

All the wise money, all the inside tips, all the whispered "take it from somebody who should know" stuff had it that Adlai Stevenson will take the nomination. Otherwise why the buildup and why the coming trip to South America with ex-Sen. Bill Benton.

But the labor leaders came away with a different interpretation of the symbolism of that breadbreaking. The union men—who will be called on to put up their money, manpower, car pools, energy and label—say it will be Stuart Symington. Of this they felt as certain as any shrewd observer is willing to be this early in the season.

I REPORT THIS to you not as a prediction but as an extremely accurate appraisal of what the labor leaders think today and whom they believe they will be called on to support next fall.

They will support the Missouri senator, though by far he is not first choice. They would prefer John Kennedy or Hubert Humphrey. But these labor chiefs have come away from private luncheons and breakfasts in the Park Avenue row these past few days believing that neither can get the top spot.

They have been told that the Democrats' National Advisory Council is split down the middle on Humphrey and Kennedy. With the liberal bloc deadlocked on these two men, there remains New Jersey's Gov. Robert Meyner, who the union people have heard just can't make it in time; Sen. Lyndon Johnson, whom the labor leaders say they won't support, and Adlai Stevenson, who many people think is away up front.

But the labor leaders and the council itself want a winner. They just don't think Stevenson can win. The union chiefs have said they believe Stevenson to be "the best man, quality for quality, etc." But they are against his nomination because they believe that both Dick Nixon and Nelson Rockefeller could take him easily.

SO THE LABOR PEOPLE are for the fellow who "has no enemies, no scratches," as one of the highest labor policy makers put it this week. That man "without scratches" is Stuart Symington, they say. Among those for Symington, for example, is steel union counsel Arthur Goldberg. He is secretary of the labor advisory committee of the National Advisory Council of the Democratic Party.

This is not to say that if Jack Kennedy got the presidential nomination, the labor leaders wouldn't break their backs and their political bankrolls to elect him. They want him on the national ticket. That's for certain. But they believe that the "party" will hand them the man from Missouri.

Boy Scout News

Troop 99
Boy scout Troop 99 of Emmanuel Lutheran Church held an open house party for parents Monday evening in the church basement. A coverd supper was enjoyed by 44 persons.

The Scouts presented a skit depicting a camp fire gathering. Each patrol had a display of its projects completed the past month, and also gave demonstrations.

Guests at the meeting were James Peters, district commissioner, Frank Vespasian of Leontonia, field commissioner, and Edward Lesch, president of the Lutheran Brotherhood, which sponsors the troop.

MAN KILLED BY 2 CARS
HAMILTON, Ohio (AP) — Lee Gillespie, 72, of Hamilton was killed here Thursday night when he was hit by two automobiles going in the same direction.

Police said Gillespie first was hit by a car driven by Kenneth Van Winkle, 30, of Hamilton. He was tossed into another lane and hit by a car driven by David H. Weisenborn, 50, also of Hamilton.

ADDING NEW FLIGHTS
AKRON, Ohio (AP) — The expanding Akron-Canton Airport is adding a new service—non-stop turboprop flights to Florida and New York. A new multi-million dollar terminal is being constructed. Capital Airlines started direct turboprop flights Thursday to Tampa and Miami.

What Price For Our Leisure?

It's Your Pocketbook

By FAYE HENLE (NEA Staff Writer)

Every one of us appears to be clamoring for more leisure. Shorter working hours are a stated goal. Spending to pursue our pleasures, which has increased by 40 per cent in the past six years, shows signs of increasing momentum.

By next year, it is predicted some 36 million families will enjoy after-tax incomes in excess of $4,000, and will control something like 60 per cent of the nation's 135 billion dollars in discretionary income. In another 10 years it is expected that 25 million families will have after-tax incomes of over $7,500. This 40 per cent of the population will control 85 per cent of discretionary spending.

Discretionary dollars are those dollars which we have left over after we have paid taxes and bought shelter, food, clothing and other necessities.

Pilot Who Flew Plane Under Bridge Grounded

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Strategic Air Command today ruled that an Air Force pilot who flew a 24-million-dollar jet bomber under the Straits of Mackinac bridge will never fly a military airplane again.

Gen. Thomas S. Power, SAC commander at Omaha, Neb., personally announced the imposition of the penalty against Capt. John S. Lappo, 39, a 12-year Air Force veteran from Muskegon, Mich. The permanent grounding of the pilot means a $200-a-month pay cut for him. Without flight pay, he will receive only $660 a month instead of $860.

Capt. Lappo admitted at his general court martial hearing Aug. 7 that he flew the six-engine B47 under the 150-foot-high span last April 24.

Gen. Power, in addition to grounding Capt. Lappo permanently, upheld the court martial penalty which included temporary loss of flying status, a severe reprimand and a $50-a-month fine for six months.

At the time of the incident, Capt. Lappo was flying out of nearby Lockbourne Air Force Base.

THE PREDICTION is that this Christmas will see retail sales hitting an all-time high. One reason for this is that while the steel strike has hugged the nation's spotlight, thousands upon thousands of workers in other industries have been quietly granted wage hikes.

Another reason is our impatience to own both the devices that make leisure possible and those that make leisure fun. It is expected that consumer credit soon will push past the 50-billion-dollar mark to hit an all-time high.

Dollar-wise, how big is our leisure market currently? What does it constitute?

The total volume is estimated at 41 billion dollars. The largest share, 16.8 billion, is spent on recreation and domestic travel. Five billion dollars goes for the purchase and maintenance of radios, TV sets, phonographs and tape recorders. Some 3.5 billion dollars is spent on gardening equipment; 2.3 billion on overseas travel and 2.1 billion each on boating and photography.

To those who sell leisure-time merchandise, this looks good. But a note of warning comes from a group representing a much broader segment of our economy. Studying the prerequisites for our economic growth in relation to that of other nations, the National Industrial Conference Board points out:

"THE AMERICAN preference for more leisure may be among the factors contributing toward a lower rate of economic growth in this country than in others during the past decade."

For generations, Conference Board members note, Americans have preferred more leisure to more goods. They ask whether something must not give in the U.S. structure of wage and capital costs that will improve our competitive position in world markets.
